

1. IfKW Mediengespräch:
“Workshop on exemplification”

11. April 2008

Program

Studies:

Christopher Blake (Hannover) & Gregor Daschmann (Mainz):
Unlearning Exemplification Effects: Does Statistical Education Prevent an Impact of Examples?

Gregor Daschmann (Mainz) & Christopher Blake (Hannover):
Validating the Lab – Field Data in Exemplification Research

Gregor Daschmann (Mainz):
An Example of Bias? How German Journalists Think About the Use of Exemplars

Tanja Pfister (München):
Exemplifications and fear appeals in health communication campaigns

Inga Huck (München):
The impact of CRM displays and exemplars on television viewers’ judgments

Inga Huck & Hans-Bernd Brosius (München):
Masses of exemplars: A contradiction?

Lettica Hustinx (Nijmegen):
Exaggerated versus representative exemplification: The moderating role of a persuasive context

Theory:

Hans Hoeken (Nijmegen):
And the story goes... Persuasive effects of anecdotes, exemplars, and stories

Hans-Bernd Brosius (München):
Towards a more general theory of illustration

Constanze Rossmann (München):
Cultivation as a long-term effect of exemplification.